“Learn From the Experienced”

Get the upper edge and “measure up with the best in Security Services”.

TONY STROLLO, a Licensed Private Investigator and Retired New York State Trooper is President of Independent Security Services, Inc. and conducts Security Guard Training classes for individuals interested in working part-time or full time as a New York State Licensed Security Guard. The 8 hour pre-licensing course is a requirement prior to obtaining a NYS Security Guard License.

Committed to providing the best in Security Service, Mr. Strollo seeks individuals with a strong desire and compassion to use their related background and experience to contribute to educating, inspiring, and fostering a high standard of work ethics in the security field.

Mr. Strollo integrates his experience as a military veteran; a NYS Correction Officer; a New York State Trooper; and a Lieutenant in Campus Law Enforcement to get his point across while teaching the 8 hour Security Guard Training Course.

To Assist Mr. Strollo is one of the very few licensed female Private Investigators in New York State that has graduated from the Executive Protection Institute in Berryville, Virginia. CAROL WAGAR, a NYS Licensed Private Investigator has been associated with Independent Security Services, Inc. since 1999 and has worked many investigative cases on all levels and in conjunction with local law enforcement. Ms. Wagar says there really is a need for females in the Security and PI profession and encourages those with an interest to “follow their dreams”, get involved and do the right thing. You can do it!

Mr. Strollo holds a Masters Degree in Criminal Justice from Long Island University and is an author of a true, human interest story, entitled: “Four Long Days: Return to Attica” which was published in 1994. His brother, Frank Strollo, was one of 39 Correction Officers held hostage during the 1971 Attica Prison Riot. Mr. Strollo was on the State Police Rescue Team that saved 28 hostages, including his own brother.
